

1st and 2nd April 2019

Agenda

Day One

University of Westminster, 309 Regent Street, London, W1B 2HW. Nearest Tube: Oxford Circus

13.00 Registration and tea/coffee

13.30 Starting out: Welcome from Cindynn Currency, University of Westminster

Introduction to 'She is Still Sustainable': Penny Walker, Alina Congreve and Claire Kneller.

Our life stories: the story so far– sharing our stories.

Keynote – Sara Parkin OBE on her life in sustainability. Sara is former European Green Party spokesperson, Founder-Director and Trustee of Forum for the Future, author of The Positive Deviant: Sustainability leadership in a perverse world and founder of the Sustainability Literacy Project.

15.15 Speed networking and tea/coffee

A chance to get to know one another in a speed networking session

16.00 What difference do our differences make? Becky Willis, co-founder of She is Sustainable on gender and the workplace, Bev Milner Simonds on supporting LGBT+ diversity, Farhana Yamin on race and ethnicity. Plus questions and discussion.

Our life stories - what difference have we made? Celebrating our collective achievements.

Group reflections, confirm arrangements for Day Two 18.00 Leave for vegetarian dinner at Tibits, where we will hear from Dr Joanna Wimpenny, co-author of Ten Thousand Birds: Ornithology Since Darwin. Jo will tell us about "Dragons and hellcats: pioneering women in the history of ornithology". Ornithology's history is long and male-dominated. Yet, several pioneering women overcame the obstacles and made ground-breaking contributions in their fields. Largely forgotten today, Jo will tell their stories.

Day Two

University of Westminster, 309 Regent Street, London, W1B 2HW. Nearest Tube: Oxford Circus

08.30 Tea and coffee

9.00 Checking in

Looking after ourselves while we look after everything else.

We will hear from Solitaire Townsend, Co-Founder of Futerra, Co-founder of She is Sustainable, author of The Happy Hero: How to Change Your Life by Changing the World and from Sophy Banks psychotherapist and co-developer of the Transition Town Movement's 'inner transition' philosophy who will explore patterns that help us to create healthy human culture for ourselves, our projects and the wider world.

Our life stories – what's still to come? Planning what we will be doing next.

11.00 Tea and coffee

11.15 Open Space session

A chance to suggest discussion topics and talk in smaller groups.

What's next – closing session including discussion about how to keep in touch and how to organise your own She is Still Sustainable event.

1.00 Lunch

2pm End

With many thanks to the University of Westminster for their generous sponsorship of the venue for She is Still Sustainable.